MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: REQUEST for Arrangements at McGuire AFB in Connection with Movement of Detachment B Overseas, 14 thru 17 August 1956

[redacted] informed the undersigned that he had discussed the memorandum of 24 July 1956 (same subject) with MATE and that MATE will call McGuire Air Force Base and lay on necessary arrangements so that one of our people may be present at McGuire. Our man should report to the Air Traffic Officer (Traffic Duty Officer) who will have been briefed previously that our man is coming. McGuire works on three 8-hour shifts so it is not practical to give us the name of a specific individual at this time. If any difficulties should be encountered our man should be instructed to call Headquarters. We informed [redacted] that our man should be there about noon on 14 August and would probably stay there until the departure of the 17 August aircraft.
